Though the winter winds blow cold, we have been warmed by our families and those loved ones during the holidays. We pray this missive finds you each happy and healthy.

It has been Our honor and privilege to attend many fine events at some of Our Shires and Baronies. We would like to thank everyone for their kindness and generosities. The events that We have attended have shown the honor and pride each has within and outside of their groups. The Shire of Windkeep, the Baronies of al-Barran, Caerthe, Citadel of the Southern Pass and Unser Haven have hosted wondrous winter events that have brought all much joy. We would wish to give Our personal thanks to the Barony of al-Barran and to Baron Sebastian and his household for the tabards, hoods, and cloaks donated for Estrella war.

Caerthe and the Kingdom set witness to THLady Guernen as she was admitted into the Ancient and Honorable Order of the Laurel. Congratulations Mistress Guernen, may your days be filled with amazement and splendor as you travel down this new path.

We are very pleased and proud of the beautiful works of art that have been bestowed upon this Kingdom and Ourselves. The scribes of this Kingdom are truly some of the most talented artisans of this world. Many pieces of art have been truly breathtaking and We wish to give Our thanks to you all.

Many events have passed and have been enjoyed by all. We must now prepare for events in the future. As Our days grow long and Our time is drawing shorter as your King and Queen, We must begin our search for those that may set as Our Heirs to the thrones of this wondrous Kingdom. We look forward to receiving these letters with excitement to see who will set as heirs. We do charge to remind all the letters are due on the 13th day of February.

As War comes upon us, We see off in a distant meadow filled with a crisp morning fog.

As the fog clears and as the air warms, stands a stag, his nostrils flared as his breath comes from his lungs. Strong and mighty fueled with respect for itself and others. His blood flows through his heart and pounds with the rhythms of the war drums of this Kingdom. We, call forth Our artisans with talents many, Our archers that fill the skies, and Our warriors strong and brave. Let us all go forth in stride along with the fierce Stag as it walks. As its hooves, strike the ground beneath, so shall our feet cause the ground to tremble, quake and send chills through the bodies and souls of those others that stand across from us. Join all, as the populaces from the far reaches of this Kingdom come together and unite as units to be counted among the armies. As in days gone by we, the Kingdom of the Outlands will show once again it's talents and skills on and off the fields of battle, being rewarded with standards of War to be flown attesting our glory. At the Estrella War this year there will be a day

The Swallow & the Birds

There was a time when birds always lived on the ground. The swallow called all the birds together and warned them not to annoy human beings, but to be friendly to them. But one of the other birds said just the reverse: "Let's eat up all their flax seed so they can't make any more linen nets to catch us with." The swallow had the right idea, so she lived in cities and houses close to people and suffers no harm. But the other birds, thinking that the flax was the cause of all their troubles, ate the seeds and grew very fat. Then people began to catch them and cook them. After that, they decided not to stay on the ground close to people, but to fly through the air instead.

Moral: If you are friendly, both you and the other person benefit by it. AESOP

Come join us in Scorpions Hollow on the Feast Day of Apollo. Celebrate the God of the Sun by illuminating your mind and warming your spirit with classes taught by outstanding Outlands artisans. There will be many demos and classes, some by teachers returning from last year by popular demand, some by new teachers and maybe even a few surprises. This day of learning will be followed by an excellent feast prepared by our world-renowned cook and her crack team of kitchen help (well, okay, last year's feast was excellent...), Clothilde van der Aalst and her Merrie Bande of Kitchen Serfs. Feast will be limited to the first 75 people signing up.

A website should be established for this event by the time the Outlandish Herald is in your hands - please check the Scorpions Hollow website at http://scorpionshollow.8k.com for further information.

As this is a non-camping event, please contact the autocrat by February 6th to reserve crash space or for information on local hotels. Please look for more information in February's Outlandish Herald. At this time, we still have room for more classes. Run, run, RUN! don't walk to your computer or telephone and contact the Autocrat today and volunteer to teach. This is a fun, fairly informal event and is a great place to teach a class for the first time (I speak from experience...)

Their Majesties King Maelgwn and Queen Cainnleach invite one and all to celebrate the coming of spring and, with it, the most glorious tournament for the Mighty Crown of the Outlands.

As usual the day will begin with an opening court followed by Crown tournament run at Their Royal Majesties whim. If time allows, both a heavy and a light weapons tourney will begin after the Crown list is over. The Heavy will be open to all unbelted and non-Royal peers. There will be 6 fighting styles to choose from for 5 rounds of combat which include: 1)Dagger 2)Glaive 6' 3)Sword and board 4)2 sticks (swords only) 5)Single one handed weapon (with brownie points for axe) and 6)TBA.Prizes will be awarded to winner, best death, and most chivalrous fighter. On-site authorizations will be available.

The light weapons tournement will include an "every man for themselves" melee. Resurrections will occurr when the person who killed you is killed themselves. The tourney will include lots of props. A game of Galway tag will happen throughout the day and requires only a sense of humor to participate.

A soup and bread lunch can be purchased on site. A warm winter Irish feast and after-revel will follow the day's chivalrous combat.
The feast menu consists of chilled salmon poached in lemon and wine, yeasted bread with herbed butter. roasted root vegetables (carrots, turnips, parsnips, and rutabagas), basted greens (leeks, chard, and spinach), roasted lamb or chicken, pickled vegetables, dessert-stewed apples and pears, with clotted cream.

We would greatly appreciate reservations in by March 1, 2002. Remember the only sure reservation is a paid one!! As our shire is small there is little crash-space to be had, however, information about rented lodging will be available from Baroness Adina at your request either thru e-mail or post.

OUTLANDS COSTUME COLLEGIUM

Autocrat: Marged Tylluan Fach, (Mary Denise Smith), 606 West Baca Street, Trinidad, Colorado, 81082, 719-845-1905, editor@costumemag.com

Directions: If you use Mapquest, enter 550 Pine Street as the address! >From the North: From Interstate 25, exit 14B. Proceed straight for 5 blocks to Prospect Street. Turn left (south). At Pine Street turn left and go one block to Prospect Drive. Turn right and proceed to the parking lot. The classroom building is Berg Hall, on the left.
>From the South: From Interstate 25, take exit 14A. Proceed straight (north) to Pine Street. Turn left and proceed to Prospect Drive, turn left. Proceed as above.

Site Resrictions: Classes will be in Berg Hall. The evening reception will be in the nearby Daugherty House (a very cool house, indeed!).

Housing is available in the dorms, or in local motels. Check the web site for details. http://www.caerthe.org/ccv/ccv.html

This year's Outlands Costume Collegium promises to be a fine event. Our featured presenter is Robin Netherton, known to mundane and SCA costumers alike for her thoughtful research and wonderful commentary. Some folks may remember her several presentations at Known World Costume Collegium. Her article on a proposed cutting method for a 12th century Norman gown appeared in the Winter 2002 Tournaments Illuminated, and will be the topic of her presentation at Outlands Costume Collegium.

This year's collegium will have all the things you have come to expect: merchants, The Walk Through History, an exhibition of costume, merchants, the finest teachers the Outlands and its neighbors have to offer, and did I mention merchants? As in previous years, the Proceedings will be available. You can pre-order the Proceedings, or buy them at the event.

Classes will begin bright and early at 8 am (hence the coffee and bagels on site!). Box lunches will be served, and munchies will be available all day. There will be a reception Saturday evening in a wonderful historic house on campus. A light dinner will be served. Feel free to bring mugs or other drinking vessels, but feast gear is not necessary.

Take a look at the web site for the most current information, and for a teacher sign up sheet. Be sure to check the site often, as classes are added and some of them will be pre-registration only!http://www.caerthe.org/ccv/ccv.html

The $12 site fee covers morning coffee and bagels, luncheon and evening reception. Reserve early because the fee goes to $15 after March 15!

Trinidad is in the center of the Outlands, so it is within reach of everyone. We eagerly look forward to seeing you there!

FROM THE KINGDOM CHRONICLER

Greeting populace of the Outlands.

The new gregorian year has started and so far it's been fun.

I would like at this time to remind all of the Deadline for publication in the Outlandish Herald. The deadline is the first of the month prior to the month of publication, i.e. to publish in March the deadline is February 1st.

I have heard (through the grapevine) that there are some out there who are confused about this deadline. To be honest there is only one (or maybe two) deadline I have to worry about. The 20th of the month. This is the day, set by Society Copora and Society Chronicler Policies, I must mail all AirMail, 1st class and 3rd class newsletters.

The second deadline, in a sense, is that the publisher, I use, requests 10 working days to process the O.H. in their business.

It takes me (alone) 6 hours to label, and collate for mailing the Outlandish Herald. We are mailing about 925 issues right now. Thanks to those who have helped in the past to make my task easier and less time consuming. I think the record is 1 hour and 45 minutes. If any of the populace would like to help at this point, I welcome them.

It takes me about two days to make sure that all the event articles, etc. have all the required information (see back page of the Outlandish Herald to see what must be publish for events) and to put together all of the Outlandish Herald (Thanks to computer technology).

I have listed a flow chart/calendar below, the month is February 2002, for March's publication of the Outlandish Herald.

If anyone has any questions or concerns, please contact me at 719-596-8654 or by email at chronicler@outlands.org

I'm always in need of cover art...

In Service,
Christina

The Great Northern Shire of Windkeep would like to invite one and all to the third Bardic and Dance Competition and Collegium. Whether you are a teacher, performer, or one who simply enjoys watching a good bard or dancer perform, all will find an enjoyable time at this event. The day will be filled with classes for all levels in such areas as singing, dancing, drumming, poetry, instrumentation, story telling, along with many other bardic arts. Some teachers expected this year include: Lord Gwilym Sais, Mistress Guernen Cimarguid, and Mistress Cailte Caitchairn. In the evening there will a feast and competition for best performance of the day!

Teachers are still welcome and appreciated in any area of the bardic arts. If you are interested in teaching, please contact the autocrat. Your time and skills would be most appreciated.

Feast reservations will be limited to the first 120, or until April 20th. The only guaranteed reservation is a PAID reservation, so get yours in early! Please send reservations to the autocrat. If you have any allergies or dietary restrictions, please contact the feast coordinator

Of a Bee

As an audacious knight,
Come with some foe to fight,
His sword doth brandish, makes his armour ring;
So this proud bee, at home perhaps a king,
Did buzzing fly about,
And, tyrant, after thy fair lips did sting:
O champion strange as stout!
Who hast by nature found
Sharp arms, and trumpet shrill, to sound and wound.

FROM THE KINGDOM SENESHAL

Good Day All,

Commitment and participation are two of the bywords of the SCA. We commit ourselves to a way of life that to some may occasionally seem a little odd. We voluntarily commit ourselves to households, shires or baronies, and to our Kingdom. Often we enter into a very personal commitment with another person as when a Knight takes a squire or a Laurel takes an apprentice. One of the greatest ways we can show our commitment to the SCA is through our membership. This is one of the only organizations I know of that does not require membership to participate in regular activities. The SCA shows its commitment to medieval recreation by not restricting who participates. It seems to me that being a member says, "I belong here, and I want to be part of every aspect of it."

Participation is a whole different ball of wax. There are many in the SCA who avidly participate and every available part of this great game. Whether member or not, they roll up their sleeves and dive into dishwater, don armor and bash and get bashed, become artisans and then teach what they have learned, become officers and participate in the direction that their particular group is going. There are also many who feel that participation is not necessary. Others will do it. These are people who are still playing on the edges of the SCA, or in many cases, have already done their part by serving, fighting, and creating, and now only wish a quiet place to watch others. There are also the majority of people who lie somewhere between the two extremes. It is to the majority that I wish to speak.

There has been much talk and encouragement lately about the upcoming Estrella War. Our leaders have been telling us to do all that we can to come to Estrella this year. For those that cannot go, they have encouraged participation in the many preparations for War. Collecting water-bearing equipment, preparing foods to feed the army, providing largesse and/or money to support the War effort are all ways to participate. I would add to this encouragement; but more importantly, I would that this type of participation can be accomplished year round on a smaller level. Every group that I know of needs officers of one sort or another. Many groups do not bid for Kingdom events because they don't believe they have the people to put on such an endeavor. This is not always for lack of people. Many times it is because those working to make a group work do not know of or cannot depend on those who lack commitment and a desire to participate.

Over the past year the Incipient Shires of Maedshire and Valley of Light have lost their entire membership. The Incipient Shire of Northwolde has remained with only two members for over two years. At this time I find it necessary to declare the Shire s of Maedshire and Valley of Light defunct. At such time as others come to populate these lands their status can once again be considered.

In the matter of Northwolde I would at this time like to designate a new administrative area in the Outlands. "A Holding." This is for those places where there are not sufficient people to apply to be a shire, but allows people to be recognized for where they live. As I designate the Holding of Northwolde I would ask for other people in outlying areas to Identify yourselves to me so that other Holdings may be created and those to small to be shires can show their commitment and participation.

In Service,
Rhys

FROM THE KINGDOM SCRIBE

Warm greetings to all who read these letters,

My sincere thanks to all scribes who accepted assignments for scrolls thus far this reign. The first few events were a little hectic but we were able to provide all requested scrolls to Their Majesties!

I have been asked the question several times privately so to answer in a public forum, it is entirely appropriate and appreciated to thank the scribe who created your scroll. On average each scroll takes approximately 25 hours to create. We are very fortunate to have so many original scrolls in the Outlands. I have heard many times that this is not so in other kingdoms, and I hope this tradition continues.

If anyone has any questions about any scribal issue, whether it be a lost scroll, backscroll or if you did not receive a scroll with your award, please feel free to contact me or my deputies.

I warmly welcome and encourage any who want to become involved in the scribal arts to contact us. There is a deputy or liaison somewhere near you ready to help you get started or help you get going again if you have taken a break from the scribal arts.

In service to the Kingdom,
Doña Maria Sol de Leon

FROM THE RAMPART HERALD

Greetings from THL Pendar the Bard, Rampart Herald.

The October Laurel meetings were held Saturday, October 13, 2001. The Letter of Acceptance and Return from those meetings was printed December 19, 2001, and received by this office on December 27, 2001. The Outlands Letter of Intent dated June 21, 2001 (http://www.puebloarc.org/OCOH/April-May2001/Color%20Letter%20of%20Intent%205-6-01.htm) was reviewed at this meeting.

The following items were registered. Congratulations!

Amanda Dusoulier. Name and device. Azure, a cheetah sejant to sinister guardant Or between three suns argent.

Anne Bigod. Name.

Artan macAilín. Badge. (Fieldless) On a cross couped argent a mullet of four points gules.

Banujah al-Marrakeshiyyah. Name and device. Argent, a natural panther passant sable and in chief a hurt.

Beldina of Caer Galen. Holding name and device. Argent, a tulip vert flowered issuant from base and on a chief gules two lions passant guardant respectant Or.

Björn Pálsson. Name and device. Azure, a bear statant erect affronty in chief two drinking horns argent.

Caterina Fregoso. Name.

Damiana bint al-Katib. Name.

Eibhlín inghean uí Raghailligh. Name change from Eibhlín Siosal.

Gwilym Sais. Name and device. Gules, a dove volant argent between three open scrolls Or.

Kathws Rusa. Name.

Kragon of Land's End. Augmentation. Per bend sinister bevilled Or and gules, a sun counterchanged within a bordure sable, as an augmentation on the sinister canton sable in pale a pearled coronet and a scorpion Or.

Lucas de Caid. Name.

Marina of Bluelake. Device Change. Azure, a turtle Or and a bordure Or semy of crescents vert.

Matill of Windkeep. Name and device. Purpure, three sinister wings argent.

Richard Ó Conchobhair. Device. Lozengy sable and Or, a bear rampant argent sustaining a banner per fess azure and gules.

Uilliam mac Maoláin. Name.

The following were returned for further work:

Amani bint Jamal ibn Diya' al Din al-Sadig. Name change from Marina of Bluelake. "al-Din" claims rank and is thus not allowed as part of a name. Since the submittor would not allow changes, the name had to be returned.

Béla of the Kyrghiz. Name and device. No evidence was presented and none could be found that the Kyrghiz would have had contact with period Western Europe. The device had two conflicts.

Beldina van de Leeuwe. Name. Lack of documentation for the construction "van de Leeuwe". Submitter requested that it be made authentic for the Dutch language/culture, but Beldina can only be documented as an Italian given name.

Bohémond le Sinistre. Badge. Sable semy-de-lys argent. Conflicts with Geoffrey de la Brugge. Sable, in pale two fleurs-de-lys argent. 1 CD for number.

Damiana bint al-Katib. Device. Azure, a chevron argent between two cats salient guardant respectant and a cross formy within the loop of an ankh Or. The emblazon cannot be adequately reproduced by a competent blazon using the currently acceptable heraldic vocabulary. Is also returned for complexity. There are three types of charges in one charge group arranged around the chevron.

Randal Carrick. Device. Argent, three peacock feathers conjoined in base proper on a chief purpure a carrot proper. There is no proper coloration for a carrot. Real period carrots could be white, red, or various shades of yellow. Orange is not a tincture acceptable for use in SCA heraldry unless the object is properly orange. Additionally, it is considered a color, so could not have been placed on a purple chief.

Pendar the Bard

FROM THE KINGDOM ARCHER GENERAL

Estrella War is fast approaching along with the opportunity to test your skills alongside archers from around the Known World. The Principal Monarchs shall open the range to allow shooting for the Estrella War Archery Competition on Thursday Feb 14, 2002 at 3pm. While the range will not be open to other archers until Their Majesties have finished, I would like everyone to come and show their support for our Crown. Thanks to Our Crowns' generous efforts, we will be able to practice on Thursday afternoon before the start of the competitions on Friday. Please stop by and lend a hand with the range setup. There will be plenty of chances to help as there are may scenarios. The Outlands and Caid are responsible for manning the ranges on Saturday from 8am to 4pm. I am asking all authorized archery marshals to assist with running the lines during this time. Anyone who would like to assist with other range functions will also be welcome. The more volunteers we have, the less time everyone will need to work.

The Known World Championship will be held on Sunday. The qualifying rounds will be in the morning between 9am and 12 noon. The tournament will be in the afternoon starting at 2pm. It is the archers' responsibility to check the list at the range to see if they qualified for the tournament. Prize shoots will be held on Sunday between 8am and 4pm.

I would like to invite all archers to a gathering on Saturday night at Larke and Lyssa's encampment at the archery range around 7:30. I would like to take this opportunity to get to know all the archers and to talk about archery and what direction we would like to see it continue. Bring your drink and chair and come talk archery. Anyone interested in archery is welcome. We'll have plenty of marshmallows.

Shoot well and safely.
Larke

GREATING FROM THE KINGDOM CHAMBERLAIN

Greeting unto the populace of the Outlands, as your Chamberlain (the person responsible for the Kingdom regalia) it is my duty to ask any who have had the great honor of serving as a Queen's guardsman in the last few reigns this important question; Have you returned your tabard? All items that delineate a person as one of the royal household are regalia. Regalia belongs to the Outlands as a whole not one person no matter how high their rank. So if you are still in possession of a Queen's Guard tabard or any other regalia item please give it to either myself or one of Her Majesty's Companions or Ladies in Waiting. No questions will be asked you will only be thanked!

I can be contacted as follows: Cynthia Harris 6000 Cortaderia St NE #6202, Albuquerque NM 87111, phone (505) 821-1642 then dial 1 to get past the anti-phone-solicitor message. I can also be reached by email at Chamberlain@kittenfu.org or celine@swcp.com

In addition the Kingdom is in need of thrones that will stay in geographical areas that can be brought forth for local area events. If you have an interest in building and/or housing and transporting thrones please contact me.

known as Outlandish Thursday. That morning the Shire of Drygestan will be hosting the Outlands Prize Tournament followed that evening by this Kingdom hosting a revel for all the Knowne World. Please contact Her Grace Eleanor if you are able to assist in hosting this extravaganza.

As We make Our travels through this kingdom, We will also be traveling to visit Our cousins to the southeast. Gulf Wars is also upon us and We are planning a grand trip to see friends of old and make new. We would wish to invite all to attend us on this grand journey to a land in which will bring much enjoyment to us all. In the next few months We will be visiting with Our cousins of the Knowne World and We will be requiring gifts and largess to show of this Kingdom's great wealth. We have been bestowed with many fine items. We would ask that anyone with ideas or talents for further the largess to please contact the Honorable Taryn Brannick, which resides within the Barony of Caerthe.

Alas, please prepare for the cold nights and We wish you each safe travels, as the Stag grows strong for the days of the Estrella War are drawing near.

EVENT ANNOUNCEMENT INFORMATION

Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- Name of the Event
- Sponsoring Group
- Event Date(s)
- Mundane name of site and address of site, including ZIP code
- Contact Information for the Autocrat
- Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat, and they are being taken)
- Contact Information for Head Cook (If serving food)
- Contact Information for additional organizers (Crash, fighting, etc.)
- If reservations are being taken:
  - Deadline for acceptance
  - All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
  - How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- All above information
- Site Open and Close times
- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
  - Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- A map to the site
- Schedule of events
- Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
